

THE NORTHWEST COIN CLUB

Newsletter – April 2019

P.O. Box 18053 Minneapolis, MN 55418-0053

The April Meeting of the Northwest Coin Club will be Thursday April 11, 2019, at the Kenwood Community Center. Informal discussion begins at 6:30 P.M. with the business meeting beginning at 7:00. A program will be presented by Dan H. who provided the following description.

Almost two years ago, a grading challenge was presented in April which included 20 encapsulated 'WORLD' coins. Below (see page 5) is the basic layout and the coins presented of that April's so-called; Dan and Pete's Grading Challenge (featuring Pete's Numbers™). The winner that year, (2017) of the fabulous prize for 'most accurate grader', was our very own Dave M.! This year's iteration will involve twenty different encapsulated 'WORLD' coins and possibly some tokens (non US - takes the pressure off), but this time I will include some small material too. Even down to 15 mm - make sure to bring a hand lens! We have better lighting this year, so grading efforts will probably be better than ever.

It is widely understood that our beloved TPG's (third-party graders), assign their 'scores' based on a synthesis of physical wear, marks and hits (or lack thereof) and of eye appeal. For a lot of 'WORLD' coins, there are relatively small sample sets of third-part graded material, and fewer systematic investigations of the types and strike states involved. For example, there are 98 NGC graded 1864 business strike dimes in all conditions. That's a nice data base. A comparably sized coin of that date from Sweden (the 25 ore, for example) has an NGC population of '1'. No data base. This renders some 'WORLD' coin categories sort of like the wild west.

When you step up to this grading challenge then, imagine that you are an NGC employee and you are looking at the very first example that your firm has been presented of that date and type. Look it over for wear and marks - measure it for its eye appeal - and then give it your best shot. That's what they do!

Fabulous prize for the winner tbd. The 'winner' this time will be the FOURTH place finisher.

A "Happy Hour" for dealers was offered after the show on Friday.

The Saturday merit badge clinic had 53 scouts registered including 44 boys and seven girls. Club president George R. led the clinic with several other volunteers. Requirements for the badge were completed by 41 boys and six girls.

2019 Youth Auction

On the left, two brothers are the first to sign up for the youth auction with George and Lou Ann. On the right, tie bids of $200 are resolved by drawing straws with Ron and George.

About 80 youth attended the “Youth Auction” on Sunday during the Northwest Coin Club Money Show.

The March Meeting was held on Thursday, March 14, 2019, with 18 attending. There were reports and discussion of the NWCC Money Show to begin the following day. Several members brought interesting items for “Show and Tell.”

On the following page is the evaluation sheet used for the grading exercise in April 2017. The same scoring system will be used for the program on April 11, 2019.
